AS TO BUILDING PERMITS.

Seven Issued Last Month, Which Was About One Third the Buildings Begun.

There were only two building permits issued last month—Chief Mullen will build a two-room frame house on Person street, costing $250, and Augustus Lougee will repair a fish stall on Martin street, at a cost of $100.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Our sister town must not be doing much in the building line just now.

In the past month seven building permits have been issued here, the amount to be expended on the buildings aggregating $20,275. These seven are about one third the number of buildings actually begun, as our people have gotten into the habit of beginning work without getting permits. Not included in the above list is a building now under way which will cost about $10,000.

This way of neglecting to get permits has become very annoying to the City Clerk. To fail to get a permit is $1 fine, and all those who have buildings under way and haven't permits for them, should get them at once.

"The Boys in Gray."

The above is the subject of a lecture to be delivered in Greensboro Friday night, December 6th, by Rev. J. Wm. Jones D. D. Mr. Jones has a national reputation as an author and lecturer. Under the management of Daughters of the Confederacy and the City High School he comes to us as the present chaplain of the United Confederate Veterans, who held their annual meeting at Louisville, Ky., last summer. Having spent his early manhood on the battlefield ministering to the soldiers, he stands today among the foremost defenders of the South.

His subject is dear to the hearts of the Greensboro people. Especially should every old Veteran be on hand and hear the words of truth from one of his comrades.

Commenting on this lecture the Meridian (Miss). News, says: "Dr. Jones knows and loves his subject, and the pictures that he drew from memory were vivid and life-like. He seemed to reanimate every scene and incident that he touched upon, portraying situations and recalling events that were always real and distinct in detail. He held the sympathy of his hearers by the directness and unaffected simplicity of his talk, which touched responsive chords and awoke an enthusiasm that found expression in the most vigorous applause."

HOT POKER IN A CHILD'S THROAT.

The Dastardly Means Used by a Step-Father to Kill a Little Two-Year-Old Child.

Lexington, Ky., Dispatch 28th.

A dispatch from Cattlesberg, says that William Gibson killed his two-year-old step-daughter there today by running a red-hot poker down her throat. Gibson had been married only a short time and had quarreled frequently with his wife about her children. Gibson showed a dislike for the girl soon after his marriage and has said he was annoyed because he had to keep the child. There was a violent quarrel between the husband and wife today and he brooded over it. He waited an opportunity when the wife was out of the house and heated the poker at the open grate. The little one clutched at the red-hot instrument in baby fashion. Sparing her tiny hands he caught the child by the neck and forced the iron down her throat. Then he set fire to the building in the hope of hiding his crime. The fire spread to the adjoining buildings houses, but the dead body of the infant with tongue and mouth seared was found. The poker was on the floor at the side of the crib.

A mob was at once organized and went in pursuit of the man.

GIBSON HAS BEEN CAPTURED.

Ashtand, Ky., Dec. 2.—William Gibson, who is charged with burning his two-year-old step-daughter to death with a poker, is undoubtedly captured and the officers have given up the chase. A message from Rush, Ky., says he has been captured there and is being held for a reward. His captors are miners and have him sequestered in the mines. Governor Beckham will offer a reward of $500 tomorrow, but his captors will not turn him over unless the reward is raised to $1,000.

MORE TROUBLE ANTICIPATED

MISSIONARIES LOOK FOR IT IN THE INTERIOR.

The Excessive Withdrawal of Troops Has Had a Bad Effect and the Complacency of the Boxers is Considered Ominous—A Chinese Gentleman Takes a Parade Before Losing His Head—Fearful Story of a Massacre.

By Wire to The Telegram.

London, Dec. 4.—A dispatch dated Nanchow Pass, December 3rd, contradicts the statement made by Count Von Waldersee regarding the situation at Kalgan. The correspondent declares that expedition is ineffective. Some towns on the way to Kalgan were occupied without opposition. Repeated attempts were made to engage the Chinese regulars but they were successful only on one occasion, and then the cavalry came into contact with a hastily retreating force and killed thirty and also captured the baggage of the Chinese soldiers and twenty thousand Taels.

Three mandarins who were the instigators of the massacre of converts were executed at Tsime, but beyond this the Germans made no effort to exact reparation for the outrages by the Chinese. The German officers also generally ignored all the evidences of anti-foreign activity. The correspondent concludes by stating that the excessive withdrawals by the allies of troops from Peking and the apparent complacency of the boxers has created a bad impression and the missionaries anticipated a recurrence of the outrages in that vicinity and a renewal of the disturbances in the interior.

PARADED BEFORE LOSING HIS HEAD.

Tien Tsin, December 3.—Tang Wen Husian, the author of the outrages at Pao Tin Fu on missionaries, arrived today and paraded through the Victoria road in a cart under a strong guard, previous to being handed over to the provisional government for decapitation.

GERMANS LOSE TWENTY.

Shanghai, Dec. 3.—It is reported in Tien-Tsin that the Germans lost twenty killed and many wounded west of Peking Fu, where they were attacked by 2,500 Boxers. A quantity of loose powder exploded in the last arsenal occupied by the Russians. It is supposed the explosion was caused by Chinese smoking. Two Chinamen were killed. The shock was felt at Tien Tsin, four miles distant.

STORY OF FEARFUL MASSACRE.

Berlin, Dec. 3.—A special dispatch from China to the Volks Zeitung, reports a fearful mission slaughter in the province of Shan. The first victims, the dispatch says, were a Catholic Bishop and his coadjutors and four European priests, Franciscans, Italian and French.

The Governor invited them to his house, for better protection, but arrived their hand were tied. Then the Governor himself poisoned them all. Next the Governor went to the Bishop's residence with a number of soldiers and seized six Marcellines sisters. He promised them money and distinguished husbands if they would renounce Christianity, which offer they unanimously rejected. Thereupon the Governor poisoned them and also a number of Chinese priests, thirty Chinese sisters and 200 orphans from three to sixteen years of age.

Fifteen seminarians, who had hidden themselves in a cistern, were, the dispatch says, tied to stakes and forced to drink the blood of the first victims. They were then killed.

A Chinese priest and two Christians who attempted to escape were caught and put in a small hut, where they were burned.

P. H. HANES & CO. HAVE SOLD.

Yesterday afternoon The Telegram stated that the long talked of trade of the R. J. Reynolds Company for the P. H. Hanes & Co's. business had been concluded. The Winston Journal says that inventory began today. It also says:

"All the brands manufactured at the B. F. Hanes factory and by Brown Bros., will be manufactured at the new R. J. Reynolds tobacco factory. Brown Bros. smoking tobacco will be pushed more than ever before. The brands manufactured at P. H. Hanes & Co., will continue to be manufactured there."

COMMOTION IN CERTAIN CIRCLES

The Pulling of Some Ten or Fifteen Retailers is Regarded by the Set as an Infringement of Vested Rights.

Mention was made yesterday afternoon of the fact that some twelve or fifteen negroes were on hand for trial at the Mayor's court, charged with a violation of the liquor laws. A few of the cases were dismissed, but the most of them were sent to court.

The warrants were sworn out by special "detectives" working in behalf of the dispensary board. There were three or four of these men, all strangers, some of them from Danville and some from Winston. Two said they were working for the board in connection with the policemen. They had been to the parties indicted and bought liquor from them or had them to procure it. Of course the negroes all denied it. Those who admitted having anything at all to do with it claimed to have gone off and purchased it.

One negro boy said he went through Mr. Greene McAdoo's house and held up his bottles, and then sat them down by the back door, where they somehow became filled without his knowledge. In some of the cases it was clear that the negroes had merely procured the liquor and they were turned loose.

It was a study to watch the faces of some of the crowd as they were being tried. It was clear that they considered that police interference with them was a fearful personal outrage.

At the court beside these cases there were several small coons who had been arrested for looting and raising a noise in the passenger depot. The policeman who arrested them stated that it was their habit to get in the building and scuffle, and then run when he appeared, and on getting to a safe distance, proceed to laugh at his discomfit. The Mayor remarked that it was a crime to laugh at a policeman, and proceeded to give the boys choice between a flogging and the road. They all chose the whipping, which was given them this morning.

CLEVER HIT AT SHAWEN.

Rather Inclined to Think Him a Species of Sounding Brass and Tinkling Cymbals. To the Editor of The Telegram:

An article, entitled "Man's Neglect," by "Shawen," appeared in a recent issue of The Greensboro Telegram, and deserves, me thinks, especial notice by his own sex. He speaks truly with the tongues of men—yea, and of angels. His theory is absolutely perfect, his English faultless, and his style of handling this subject strong and masterful. In fact, taken as a whole, it reminds one of a precious jewel exquisitely set, or a dainty bit of Dresden china, as beautiful as it is fragile.

"Shawen," we understand, is a bachelor, and consequently knows nothing at all about what he is writing. However, innocent himself of this beastly neglect, he walks right in and seized with a paroxysm of pity for the fair sex, snatches his pen and with a flourish, shouts, "Lay on McDuff and damned be he who first cries hold! enough!"

Fluttering maidens on the brink of womanhood pore over this tirade, and while they shudder at man's baseness, they tingle with the thought that there is yet one man within the bounds of Eden—They sigh and gaze with faraway look into the future where they see "Shawen"—their prince—charging toward them on prancing steed. Oh, thrice blessed damsel, whom he bears away! May he not be to you a snare and a delusion, but may the old, old story which he whispers in your ear grow sweeter with each decade. May December be as pleasant as May and may your life be one long dream among the flowers which under ordinary circumstances would wither and die in the snow on your poor little grave.

Is "Shawen" come from the wilderness as a forerunner of a new order of things? Would that it were true! M. NARCISSA.

Mr. P. G. Monk, formerly of this place, but now of Washington, was in the city today.

THE PAYNE SHIP SUBSIDY BILL.

CANAL BILL CONSIDERED IN EXECUTIVE SESSION.

Ways and Means Committee Struggling Over the Reduction of Taxes—Beer Folks Want it to Come Off Their Beverage.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The ship subsidy bill will be taken up this afternoon and the Hay-Ponceforte treaty will be considered in the executive session. The shipping bill will be pushed as rapidly as possible, but there will be an extended debate.

Secretary Gage's report makes the surplus last year nearly $80,000,000. He estimates the same amount this year. The total estimated revenue for 1901 is $760,000,000, the expenditures $690,000,000.

The Ways and Means Committee is still undecided about the bill for the reduction of war taxes, and no decision is in sight. The advocates of the reduction of the beer tax are holding out strongly.

The senate committee on inter-oceanic canals will not antagonize the program of the Republican steering committee, as the members expressed their desire today to see the Hay-Ponceforte treaty disposed of one way or the other. The Isthmian canal commission made their report and a special message to the President on the subject may be sent to congress this afternoon.

MURDERED AND ROBBED OF $800.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Boston, Dec. 4.—John H. Crowell was murdered last night, and his pocketbook, containing $800, taken. It is reported that the robbery was the result of a plot to secure his share of the millions of the Crowell estate, of which he was an heir.

TO INQUIRE INTO THE DEATH OF CADET BOOZE.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Representative Diggs, of Brooklyn, will offer an inquiry into the death of cadet Booze, whose death is charged to hazing at West Point.

NEW YORK TO HAVANA TWO AND A HALF DAYS.

By Wire to The Telegram.

New York, Dec. 5.—The new steamship Moro Castle of the Ward Line, arrived this morning, having established a new record from Havana to New York of two days, 11 hours and 27 minutes.

THE WOODWARD WARREN COMPANY.

The Woodward-Warren Company was greeted by a good house last night in spite of the very bad weather. They gave "The Paymaster." The play itself is weak. Mr. Woodward was clever both in the play and before the curtain, and was a prime favorite. He furnished most of the entertainment, and before the curtain and with his local hits was a very "amoooin cuss." Mr. Harry Lynton, as Robert O'Connor, played well. The play didn't furnish any of the other members much of a chance.

Tonight will be given Nat Goodwin's celebrated play, the "Gold Mine," and it promises to be good. Tomorrow afternoon will be given a matinee, at which a ladies gold watch will be presented to the lady or child who guesses the nearest to the time when the watch shall stop, after having been wound up. The watch is given by the company and the Schiffman Jewelry Company. The second best guesser will be given a five pound box of candy, donated by John B. Fariss.

METHODIST MINISTERS MOVING.

Dr. J. C. Rowe, who has served West Market street church as pastor two years, left this morning with his family for his new field on the Charlotte district. He will reside in Monroe, a former pastor.

Dr. F. H. Wood, for the past two years presiding elder of the Greensboro district, will leave Friday for his new work in Wadesboro.

Rev. T. E. Waggs will leave tomorrow for Morganton. Mr. Waggs also spent two years in Greensboro.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS TODAY.

A dispatch from Lividia says that the Czar is able to sit up at intervals during the day.

In London this morning the House of Commons proceeded to swear in members of the House of Lords. The Lord Chancellor announced the receipt of papers showing that the Duke of Manchester and Baron Ludeley had been adjudged bankrupts, which precluded their sitting.

Last night in Cologne bands of roughs shouted "Down With England" at the approach of the British consulate and attempted to tear down the shield.

Thirty-seven cases of yellow fever were reported at Havana today.

SONG RECITAL.

The pupils of Mr. Clarence Richard Brown will give a recital at his residence on Friday night of this week, at which the appended program will be rendered. Friends of the students are invited to attend.

IN THE COURT HOUSE.

The time of the Superior Court has been taken up so far with the trial of small cases. Alex Jourdan, who shot his wife, pleaded guilty, but sentence has not yet been passed. The following have been sentenced to the roads: Robert Thacker, larceny, nine months.

Henry Martin, carrying concealed weapons, thirty days.

James Parks, larceny, seven months.

Walter Roberts, larceny, six months.

Mr. A. W. Cooke was this morning sworn in as an attorney of court. Mr. Cooke is a young man of fine character and ability and is making a fine impression.

Solicitor Brooks got out of a sick bed to take his place in court yesterday. He had fever today while carrying on business in the court room.

GOING TO THE CONVENTION.

The Baptist State Convention meets in Raleigh tomorrow, and will continue till next Monday. Six hundred and fifty delegates are expected to attend. The convention covers the entire State. Every train carries delegates today and tonight.

Rev. Livingstone Johnson left this morning.

Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Gwaltney, of Newton, spent the night with their son here, Mr. Will Gwaltney, clerk at Fariss' drug store. Rev. Mr. Gwaltney was pastor of the West Washington Street church here from 1884 to 1890, and is well known to our citizens.

Rev. J. R. Moore, of Yanceyville, stopped last night with his brother, Mr. J. S. Moore, and went to Raleigh this morning.

Miss Mary Neal, of Reidsville, was here this morning also enroute to the Convention.

DON'T BE DISHEARTENED.

We hope our friends who have been missing their paper for the past week will not be disheartened. We are trying our best to find good, reliable boys, but it seems that right recently we have failed. It is very much to our interest to have every paper delivered promptly, and we hope that our subscribers will notify us every time they miss. It is our business to get their papers to them, and we are trying to do it.

"SNIPSEY" STARK'S LEAP.

11-YEAR-OLD, IN DEFIANCE OF A COP
DIVES 25 FEET FROM A ROOF.

He's in the Hospital, but Happy, for He's the Hero of the "Cherry Street Terrors" Now—Why Didn't Yer Foller Me? He Asks the Policeman While Being Bandaged Up.

New York Sun.

Johnny Stark, leader of the "Cherry Street Terrors" lies in Bellevue Hospital today with several bones broken and his little body from the tips of his toes to the top of his clean-shaven, round head swathed in bandages. Johnny is also in the hands of the police and is held in the hospital a prisoner. Not that he cares for that much. It isn't the first time by a long shot that Johnny has had dealings with his arch enemy, the blue-coated cop on the corner. His name is inscribed in many places in the blotter of the Madison street station, for since he has been big enough to walk he has been a sore source of trouble in the precinct. The book of "general alarms" at Police Headquarters contains his name equally often.

Johnny is not unknown at the Gerry society's rooms. His record, in fact, is a bad one, indeed, but for all that he is happy, despite his broken bones and many bruises. Isn't he a hero in the eyes of "de gang"? Didn't he defy a policeman and, after trying to "brain" him with a stone, jump headlong twenty-five feet from the top of one house to another? Now, if he ever emerges from the hospital without being a cripple for life he will be a fit candidate for membership in the "big fellows" gang of Cherry street, for in their minds his feat of yesterday qualifies him for the honor.

Johnny is 11 years old. He has lived at 363 Cherry street when he was not on some foraging expedition, which however, often occurred. He glories in the title of "Snipsey" and since a year ago, when he escaped from a cop by dexterously tangling up that individual's legs, he has been the leader of the "Cherry Street Terrors." He kept the Terrors in hot water by the number of risky enterprises of a more or less lawless nature he planned, but that was only fun. The rest is earnest. Ever since election day the Terrors and the "Montgomery Street Mugs" have been deadly enemies. On that day the Terrors had a fine collection of bonfire material which the Mugs surreptitiously stole. Since then, every time the two gangs met there has been a pitched battle and yesterday was one of the occasions.

The battle was fought in Water street, between Scammel and Jackson streets. Sticks, stones and all other available missiles were the weapons used and the folks living around there had retired to the houses when Policeman McCabe of the Madison street station hove in sight. He had heard the racket a block away and came around the corner of Jackson street with vengeance for being disturbed in his eye. The two crowds scattered. "Snipsey" Stark, who had been in the thickest of the fray, ran with the rest, but he didn't go far. Having had so much experience with policemen, he wasn't afraid of a single cop. Instead of getting out of sight like the rest of the combatants, he retraced his steps, keeping close to the stoop line. The policeman saw him coming and waited. Johnny got within twenty feet. Then he jumped into the street, picked up a good-sized cobblestone, and, as McCabe started for him, hurled the stone with all his strength. The boy's aim was good and the policeman had to duck to get out of the way. The stone struck a woman who was behind the policeman. Luckily she received only a glancing blow and wasn't much harmed.

After throwing the stone Johnny darted for the nearest doorway, the policeman at his heels. The doorway was at 634 Water street. The boy dashed up the dark stairs, and being more agile than his pursuer reached the roof ahead of him. He slammed the roof door in McCabe's face when the latter got to the top and disappeared. When next the cop saw him he was standing on the edge of the roof at 638 Water street. Next to this house is a stable, the roof of which is twenty-five feet below the top of the tenement. McCabe thought he had his prey cornered, and started for the boy. "Snipsey" stood on an elevation about two feet above the roof level, facing the policeman.

"Say," shouted the boy defiantly, "if you come near me I'll jump!" "I'm going to arrest you now. You can't get away from me this time," the policeman replied, keeping on.

"Like hell ye are," returned the boy and facing about dived off the roof.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking spot, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.

with his hands in front of him. The policeman ran to the edge of the building and saw the youngster lying in a heap on the roof below. Quick as his feet could carry him he hurried to the street, sent a man for an ambulance and then made his way to the stable roof. Not a moan was heard from the boy when McCabe picked him up and carried him to the street. There an ambulance from Gouverneur Hospital was waiting. The doctor wrapped yards of white linen around the boy's legs, body, arms and shoulders. He couldn't tell yet how many bones were broken. The boy didn't utter a word of complaint, but once he turned to the policeman.

"Say," he said with a smile on his dirty face, "why didn't yer foller me?" He was taken to Gouverneur Hospital where permanent bandages were put around his broken joints. Then he was transferred to Bellevue. A policeman was sent along, but it was an unnecessary precaution. The boy couldn't move if he wanted to. The ambulance drove to the prison ward but Supt. O'Rourke doesn't believe that miners should be placed in this division of the hospital and one of the attendants carried the boy to the main part of the hospital. The superintendent said he would see to it that "Salpese" didn't get away until the police wanted to take him.

The boy's mother called at the police station after he had been taken to the hospital. Motherlike she was sorry that the boy was hurt but she was glad he was under arrest.

"If you don't do something with him," she said to the sergeant, "I will. If he gets out of this I'm going to have him put in an asylum. He has caused me more worry and trouble than my whole family. I'll have to do something with him."

The Terrors didn't take that view of it.

"Gee," said one admirer, "isn't he a star? I hope he beats it. Dav's the best thing ever."

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS.

Last week The Telegram announced that it would receive and publish letters from the children to Santa Claus. While we cannot make sure that Santa Claus will bring everything asked for, we are sure that he shall see the letters, and then it depends on the boys and girls' good behavior as to what he brings them. Write for whatever you want and we will print it and he'll be sure to see it.

A NIGHT OF TERROR.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought that she must soon die from pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying that it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Grissom & Fordham.

Now is the time when croup and lung troubles prove rapidly fatal. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results is One Minute Cough Cure. It is very pleasant to take and can be relied upon to quickly cure coughs, colds and all lung diseases. It will prevent consumption. Howard Gardner.

GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Grissom & Fordham.

When you need a soothing and healing antiseptic application for any purpose, use the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and skin diseases. It heals sores without leaving a scar. Beware of imitations. Howard Gardner.

RHEUMATISM—CATARRH—DISEASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air, blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure and so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

When the stomach is tired out it must have a rest, but we can't live without food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure "digests what you eat" so that you can eat all the good food you want while it is restoring the digestive organs to health. It is the only preparation that digests all kinds of food. Howard Gardner.

THE ROAD TO WEALTH IS THE ROAD TO SUCCESS.

No man or woman can have success assured without the development and knowledge of how to use their personal magnetism in the control of others. TUESDAY, DECEMBER 4.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Our report yesterday afternoon very well summarized Mr. McKinley's message so far as its recommendations were concerned. The message in full would occupy some thirty or forty columns of The Telegram's space. It is safe to say that few people except the newspaper folks who have to handle it will wade through the whole thing, which for the most part, is uninteresting detail. There is no venom in the message and no fling at the South. Mr. McKinley, in the production of his papers, consults his head and heart and speaks as he feels, but the sad part of it is that his papers are no index to what his party will do, for if it opposes, he bends.

He says lynchings must stop, but how this consummation is to be accomplished nobody knows. Certainly it cannot be done by any federal effort. The recommendation that federal courts be given jurisdiction in cases where foreigners have been lynched is a good one, and really the only new thing in the message. It has been no doubt an anomalous condition of affairs in this country, to the foreign mind, that allows this government to make prompt enough demands upon other governments when American citizens have been injured, and then to say, that, owing to our peculiar organic law, this government could not punish an offense within its borders nor allow the foreign government to deal with the State wherein it was committed.

ADVERTISING.

Says the Charlotte News:

Possibly we could have no better opportunity for saying something about the advertising patronage of the business establishments of Charlotte.

We refer to newspaper advertising for that is practically the only kind in which our merchants invest—advertising "schemes" do not find favor with them.

There is no reflection in the statement that the business men of Charlotte use more space, more methods, more enterprise and more wisdom in advertising than the business men of any other city in the State, with the natural result that Charlotte is the metropolis of North Carolina.

There is scarcely a doubt that the advertising columns of a town's papers are taken as an index to the business of that town. Thus newspaper advertising—not schemes on cards for the ash barrel—serves more than one purpose.

Representative Crumpacker, of Indiana, yesterday introduced a bill in the House to apportion the representation so that the South will lose part of its representatives. He said in an interview:

I think this question is of a great deal more importance than either the ship subsidy bill or the Nicaraguan canal bill. Under the provisions of my bill the South will lose thirteen votes at the start and perhaps many more when it is properly operated. In order to get at the exact representation to which they are entitled, we will rely largely upon the census returns. North Carolina will lose four representatives under the provisions of my bill. This bill is not introduced as a party measure. It is for the purpose of keeping out of congress such representatives as are not entitled to seats. I shall push the measure to the limit and am confident that it will pass at this session.

It would be interesting to know how the people of Indiana regard Mr. Crumpacker's peculiar brand of statesmanship.

The problem now is, are the powers trying to do China or each other?—Durham Herald.

Both.

All of us have something to be thankful for. Just now we had rather be running a country newspaper down here in North Carolina than the Czar of all the Russias.—Durham Herald.

Yes, and now that the Czar is getting well, you'll want to change back again.

PARTIES IN CHINA

Interesting Facts from a Noted Chinese Leader.

Inner Affairs of the Barbarian Empire Communicated by One of the Kingdom's Progressive Men.

The following extracts from a memorandum prepared last autumn for an English friend by the Chinese reformer, Kang Yu Wei, will be read with interest at the present juncture, says the London Times.

"In order properly to comprehend the inner affairs of the Chinese empire, the first thing needful is rightly to distinguish the different parties in China. The empress dowager holds on to the old ways; her party is known as the 'empress' party.' The emperor and his friends who desire reform are known as the 'emperor's party.' Then there is a third party, known as the 'middle party,' which is chiefly concerned with its own interests and dares not interfere in politics. Nine-tenths of the people and officials are comprised in this party.

"The empress dowager, notwithstanding that she is the head of the ruling party, possesses few or no friends outside of official circles and the Yamen. Otherwise her influence is small. Her intimates are all Manchus. Yung Lu, appointed by her commander in chief, Kangwei, special commissioner for the collection of additional revenues from the provinces; Prince Tuan, Yun Yu, Bwai-ta-pu, etc. The only clever man among them is Yung Lu; the rest are densely ignorant and care for nothing but wealth and official rank. Of the high military officials, Tung-Fu-Siang belongs to the empress' party and Yuan-Shi-Kai to the emperor's. All the remainder may be said to belong to the middle party. Thus I am right in saying that the empress' party are few in number, although at the moment their power is great.

"The middle party, on the other hand, is spread throughout the whole empire. The majority are in their heart of hearts devoted to the emperor, admiring his intelligence and rectitude, and these are alarmed and angry at the empress' usurpation. They know how ignorant she is and what a dissolute life she has led for the last 30 years, and that the weakness of China is largely due to her misdeeds. But the high officials are too old; they sit blinking in the twilight, not daring to act, but leaving success or ruin to come, as the emperor or the empress gains the upper hand.

"Ruined as the emperor's party is, yet they are the real reformers; both officials and people, they long for reform and new methods, but while the empress' party hold the power, they are in dread of severe punishment. At the time of the coup d'etat the empress falsely asserted that the emperor's party was planning revolt. She prohibited newspapers, killed and drove out hundreds of reformers and exiled numbers of high officials to the frontiers. Six of the reformers executed were high metropolitan officials, one a member of the grand council and one whom the emperor had nominated to be prime minister; all were the emperor's personal friends; they were beheaded without trial, while hundreds of smaller officials and thousands of the common people were proscribed. These measures were carried out in order to clip the emperor's wings. Why were all these leading men willing to associate themselves with the reform party? The answer is that they were loyal subjects, anxious to save their country and deserve the emperor's benevolence. You have only to read the Chinese newspapers, Ko-wen-pao, published in Tientsin; Su-pao, published in Shanghai; Chi-hsin-pao, published in Macao; Ching-ni-pao, published at Yokohama; Tien-nan-pao, published at Singapore—these are all published under foreign protection and so are able to speak the truth; they one and all sympathize with the party of reform. The Japanese newspapers all take the same view; their criticism is independent. The empress dowager is a licentious old woman. She is not the emperor's real mother, and she had no hesitation in deposing him so as to retain her power. But she was wrong in taking Yung Lu's advice to depose the emperor and place the power in his (Yung Lu's) hands. As soon as he got control of the northern troops Yung Lu threw off the mask and did what he willed, and the empress lives in constant dread of treachery on the part of her eunuchs."

FARM LABORER HOARDS A FORTUNE

Death of a Man Whose Only Interest in Life Was to Save Money—Left $50,000 or More.

Watertown, N. Y., Dec. 2.—By the death of Victor Williams this week at the home of his nephew in Depauville, this county, northern New York has lost one of its most eccentric characters. He never received more than the wages of a laborer, and yet by hoarding that which he earned and investing it, he accumulated a fortune variously estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000.

The only interest this man found in life was saving money, and this he enjoyed as most men enjoy spending money. He worked on farms as a laborer for his board and what money he could get, and he saved every cent. As his little hoard accumulated he would put it out at interest, loaning it on farms where he had worked and the value of which he knew to a certainty. Few men ever saw him spend a cent and none ever saw him take a chance. As the years rolled by, farm titles came to him, and he hoarded land as he had hoarded money. When the income from his farms and mortgages would have given him a living much better than that enjoyed by his neighbors, he still continued to work and to save. Hundreds of acres of splendid farming land were his absolutely and he had mortgages on many more.

In the latter years of his life this strange man worked less, as he was obliged to devote more of his time to collection of rent and interest. At least twice a year he would start on his long trip collecting, always walking, despite the fact that he had long outlived the allotted threescore years and ten. Over one arm he carried a pair of cowhide boots and in these he carried his money and securities. At the end of each trip he would come to this city to deposit his money, for he had none of the miser's distrust of banks.

In all these years no man has ever been able to say that Victor Williams was not scrupulously honest, and there was never a shadow on his integrity. He would wrong no man and allow no one to wrong him, and above all things he despised a man who would not keep a promise.

Victor Williams was born at Point Peninsula, this county, about 85 years ago. He had some educational advantages and was naturally bright. At one time he taught school in the town of Lyme, and it was thought that he contemplated a professional career. Those few who remember him in those days say that he was bright in conversation and well dressed. There is a story, now almost a legend, that he was disappointed in love, and from that time his only interest in life was the accumulation of money.

CROWNING CHRISTMAS CHANCES

Here's a golden opportunity to fill the Christmas stocking, for Santa Claus is in a good humor and anxious to shake hands with a lean purse—if you have one—over our counters for the next week or two. Something to interest the old and young. Our entire upper floor is packed with all kinds of Christmas goods, such as Books, Toys, Games, Albums, Etc. And this establishment tells of Christmas everywhere. Holiday tokens on every side. Everything has caught the Christmas spirit, even the people, judging by the great throngs that filled our store Saturday, reminded one of the day before Christmas. Well, how about the Christmas presents? Incidentally this is no time to throw away good, hard cash for geegaws and gimcracks, but sensible articles for Christmas presents should demand attention. Our 4 stores are full and running over with such goods and Christmas shoppers should not lose sight of this fact.

DOLLS - FROM - DOLLYLAND The best representatives of Doll-dom have met here. Quite a convention of all styles, complexions and conditions of dolls. Hundreds of little hearts will soon be made happy, for these are priced to pass from our possession to yours before Christmas eve. There is great individuality among them. Life-like faces, with intelligence sparkling from their eyes; hardly two expressions alike. This is only an outline of the thousand and one articles our genial partner brought us. Come and see. Now here are some things that might answer for a Christmas present when the prices are cut in two in the middle: Cut price sale in cloaks, capes, jackets and furs now on. Plush lap robes only $1.50, the best ever shown.

All-wool Elkin Blankets: Why, everybody in this country knows what they are. 8067—Misses' Norfolk Waist.
8070—Misses' Five Gored Skirt.
Waist, 12, 14 and 16 years.
Skirt, 12, 14 and 16 years.

MISSSES' OUTDOOR COSTUME.

Consisting of Norfolk Waist, No. 8067, and Five Gored Skirt, No. 8070.

For early fall and school wear Norfolk suits are especially smart. The costume illustrated is developed in blue and gray cheviot, trimmed with plain blue.

The jacket waist is mounted on a fitted lining which closes in the center front. The back and fronts are made to fit the figure perfectly, and extend below the waist line. The applied plaits graduate in size and are flatly pressed. A smooth adjustment is maintained under the arms and over the hips, the fullness from the plaits giving a stylish flare around the lower edge. The garment closes invisibly under the center front plait.

The broad collar of unique scalloped shaping is edged with a band of blue cloth. The narrow belt and fancy cuffs are of the same fabric. There is a comfortable fullness at the top of the correct two-piece sleeve.

The jacket waist may be worn with a white chemise, collar and tie, as illustrated, or a fancy shirt waist of contrasting color may accompany the costume.

The skirt is shaped with a narrow front gore and wide sides, fitting smooth around the waist and over the hips. An inverted plait is arranged at each side of the centre back, where the closing is made. These plaits are flatly pressed, the upper portion of the skirt presenting a plain effect, similar to the habit back model.

The pattern also provides a circular flounce, which may be applied to give additional flare to the lower edge.

Double-faced suiting, serge, covert and Henrietta cloth are appropriate fabrics for this mode, which can be finished in strictly tailor style, with machine stitching, or trimmed with braid, ribbon, velvet and cloth bands.

To make the waist for a miss of fourteen years will require two and one-quarter yards of forty-inch material. The pattern, No. 8067, is cut in sizes for misses, twelve, fourteen and sixteen years.

To make the skirt in the medium size will require three yards of forty-four inch material. The pattern, No. 8070, is cut in sizes for misses of twelve, fourteen and sixteen years.

Help is needed at once when a person's life is in danger. A neglected cough or cold may soon become serious and should be stopped at once. One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures coughs and colds and the worst cases of croup, bronchitis, grippe and other throat and lung troubles. Howard Gardner.

COLD STEEL OR DEATH.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvellous power of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c at C. E. Holton's drug store.

THE WEATHER.

For North Carolina: Colder and fair tonight except rain on the coast, frost in central and west portion. Wednesday fair, colder in central and east portions, brisk high south winds on the coast shifting northeast by night. Highest temperature, in Greensboro, for past 24 hours, ending eight o'clock this morning, 48; lowest 34. Rainfall 1.48.

LOCAL NOTES.

Mr. Calvin McCulloch, who died Sunday evening at his home about eight miles south of the city, was buried this afternoon at Tabernacle.

Mr. H. L. Parker, of Asheville, has come to Greensboro, where he will likely make his home. He is a civil engineer and will work with Mr. Frank Pierce.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. C. R. Brown, No. 301 West Washington street. A full attendance is desired.

The regular meeting of the South Greensboro Y. W. C. T. U. will be held at Mrs. Glascock's, on Asheboro Street, Wednesday at 4 p. m. A good attendance is desired.

Music and Art Recitals.

A new innovation for the people of Greensboro and one of decided advancement will be the series of musical recitals that the Euterpe Club has arranged to be given periodically at the parlors of the McAdoo House.

Only the best high class talents, both from home and abroad, will be heard and the recitals are to be given in the afternoon at popular prices, so that the social feature may prove as attractive as the artistic.

High class matinee recitals are very popular in larger cities, and give an opportunity for many to attend who find it inconvenient to do so in the evening.

This club hopes to begin their series next Friday afternoon.
